

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my gratitude to my supervisor Prof. R. K. Mandal for his continuous encouragement, critical but always constructive advice and help during my Ph.D. thesis and his commitment and patience to introduce and teach me how to do research.

I sincerely thank Prof. N. K. Mukhopadhyay, Head of the Department of Metallurgical Engineering and the former Head Prof. R. K. Mandal and Prof. G. V. S. Sastry for providing all the research facilities to successfully accomplish my research in the Department.

Besides my supervisor, I would like to thank other members of RPEC: Prof. N. K. Mukhopadhyay, Department of Metallurgical Engineering and Prof. A. S. K. Sinha, Department of Chemical Engineering, for their time spent in ensuring that I meet the requirements of a doctoral degree.

I have deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Joysurya Basu for his unconditional support both on academic and personal fronts. His expertise in TEM and outstanding research ideas inspired me to shape this thesis in the current form.

I would also like to thank Dr. Bratindranath Mukherjee for guiding my early steps into the wonderful world of synthetic chemistry, his help in operating TEM and sharing knowledge during entire period of this thesis work.

I am thankful to all other faculty members of the Department of Metallurgical Engineering, IIT (BHU), for their cooperation and inspiration. I am also thankful to all the Lab staff specially Shri Lalit Kumar Singh for transmission electron microscopy, Shri Ashok Ji, Shri Ramasre Ji, Shri Anjani Ji and all the office staff.

I am thankful to my friends, Deepa, Santhosh Alla, Raj Bahadur, Manas, Alka and my juniors Vaibhav, Himanshu, Dhananjay, Manjri, Rajendra, Ankitendran, Ankit, Avnish, Aman, Sarika, Harsh, Saptarshi, Soham, Piyush, Ketan for their constant encouragement, making joyful and memorable moments of happiness and troubles at IIT (BHU), Varanasi.

My special thanks to my lab mates Vikas Shivam, Vivek Pandey and Yagnesh Shadangi for their untiring support.

Last, but not the least, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my family, my parents Mrs. Pushpa Singh and Mr. Daya Shankar Singh, for giving me life in the first place, for educating me, for their unconditional support and encouragement to pursue my interest. I would also like to thank my wife Seema, my wonderful kids Atharva and Anvita for their support in this journey.

I also wish to thank all my friends and the persons whose names have not been mentioned on this piece of paper for extending their cooperation directly or indirectly.

I acknowledge MikTeX, a freely available typeset platform for writing this thesis.
