“A tree that wants to touch the sky must extend its roots into the earth. The more it wants to rise upwards, the more it has to grow downwards. So to rise in life, we must be down to earth, humble & grateful.”A.P.J. Abdul Kalam

Mere the words are not sufficient to exhibit my gratitude to all without whom this work would not have been accomplished. During the research work I have been accompanied and supported by many people. It is great pleasure to take this opportunity to express my gratitude for all them. First and foremost, I want to thank ALMIGHTY who blessed me with strength and calm during completion of task. Words wouldn't suffice to express my heartfelt gratitude to Bharat Ratna Mahamana Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya Ji, the founder of Banaras Hindu University who sacrificed his entire life and efforts in establishing this artistic temple of knowledge and wisdom.

Indeed, with great honour, sincerity and immense pleasure, I express my deepest sense of gratitude and special thanks to my supervisor Prof. Brahmeshwar Mishra (Mishra Sir) who believed in, encouraged and supported my efforts and provided intellectual stimulation, continuing, exhilarative and sagacious guidance throughout the study. His scholarly suggestions, prudent admonitions, immense interest, constant help and affectionate behavior have been a beacon of light for me. I feel very fortunate to work under such venerated teacher.

I owe my sincere thanks to Prof. Sanjay Singh, Head, Department of Pharmaceutical Engineering & Technology, I.I.T. (B.H.U.), Varanasi for providing the necessary facilities and intellectual guidance during the course of the work.

I am indeed obliged and sincerely thankful to all the respected RPEC members Dr. Ruchi Chawla, Dr. Abha Mishra (Biochem Engg.) for their cooperation and valuable suggestion for the progress of the work. I owe my sincere thanks to all the faculty members of the department, Dr. A.K. Srivastava, Prof. S.K. Singh, Prof. S.K. Srivastava, Prof. S. Hemlatha, Prof. K. Sairam, Dr. Senthil Raja, Dr. A.N. Sahu, Dr. S.K. Mishra, Dr. A.K. Maurya, Dr. P.K. Nayak, Dr.M.S. Muthu, Dr. G.P. Modi, Dr. A.K. Agrawal, Dr. S.K. Jain, and Dr. V. Tiwari for their kind help and suggestion throughout the work. I would also like to pay sincere thanks to all non-teaching staff for their technical assistance during the research work.

I owe my sincere thanks and deep regards to Dr. Harsh Vardhan, Dr. Sarita K. Yadav & Ms. Swati Prakash for their moral support, instancing co-operation and positive suggestions as well as their sincere involvement at every process of my research.

I am also grateful to IIT (BHU), Varanasi for providing me financial support in the form of Teaching Assistant fellowship. I am thankful to Central Instrument Facility Centre (CIFC) for providing facility of SEM, XRD, EDX. I would also like to thank Mr. Virendra Singh, Pharmacovigilance Department Saifai for gamma scintigraphy study, Mr. Manoj Gautam, Punjab University for DSC study, Dr. Jyoti Kode, ACTREC Mumbai, for SRB assay and antitumor activity and Cipla, Bangalore for providing gift sample for the research work.

My heartfelt thanks to my husband Mr. Avanish Mishra for his consistent help during preparation of thesis and moral support.

One cannot forget the strength, support that one gets from one's family. With gratitude and reverence, I acknowledge and admire the love, confidence and moral support bestowed on me by my Parents. Without their affection, the present effort would have remained an unrealized dream.

With the deepest affection and gratitude, I bow down at the pious feet of Lord Vishwanath for when I put my trust in Him and He showed me the way I should go.

Lastly, I pray to Almighty for the 'Moksha' of all the experimental animals utilized in my research work, whose sacrifices proved the truth of my thesis work done for treating the ailments in human.
