

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Before everything, I Thank GOD, the almighty, the most beneficent and merciful, for giving me enough strength to carry on this project successfully.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my Supervisor Dr Preetam Singh (Department of Ceramic Engineering, IIT BHU, Varanasi, India) and Co-supervisor Prof. Ram Pyare (Department of Ceramic Engineering, IIT BHU, Varanasi, India), for him valuable support, encouragement and guidance throughout my academics as well as for helping me to pursue my thesis in my area of interest. He always had great suggestions and ideas which formed the core of my research and thesis.

I am grateful to RPEC Members Dr J. V. Tirkey (Department of Mechanical Engineering, IIT BHU, Varanasi, India), Dr Anil Kumar (Department of Ceramic Engineering, IIT BHU, Varanasi, India) and DPGC Dr M. R. Manjhi (Department of Ceramic Engineering, IIT BHU, Varanasi, India) for providing the motivation to me during my research progress evaluation.

I thankfully acknowledge to all faculty members of IIT (BHU), who have taught me various courses during my academic program.

I express my heartfelt esteem to the Indian Institute of Technology (Banaras Hindu University), Varanasi, India,

I also thankfully to me related preceding Institute and University as IIIT-Allahabad, UPTU Lucknow, University of Allahabad and G.I.C. Allahabad, Uttar Pradesh, India.
