

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

About few years ago, I joined School of Biochemical Engineering, I.I.T. (B.H.U.) with an enthusiasm for new intellectual journey. Now, I am in state to look forward to my future endeavors with more confidence. A journey is easier when you travel together. This thesis is the result of work, whereby I have been accompanied and supported by many people. It is a pleasant aspect that I have now the opportunity to express my gratitude for all of them, if your name is not listed, rest assured that my gratitude is not less than for those listed below.

It gives the immense pleasure to express my deep sense of respect and personal gratitude to my research supervisor Prof. Subir Kundu for his excellent guidance & constant encouragement. He has done so much to keep me going in the right direction through the years and left me enough freedom to do things the way I thought they should be done. I have benefited greatly from his scholarly and perceptive criticism. The deepest appreciation is for his professional expertise. His many enthusiastic statements will haunt me for the rest of my days.

I have much pleasure in expressing my grateful thanks to Prof. Pradeep Srivastava, Coordinator, School of Biochemical Engineering for his valued suggestions and constructive criticism and always ready for giving any favor.

I would like to thank Prof. S. K. Srivastava, School of Biochemical Engineering who always kept on eye on the progress of my work and was always available when I needed his advices. I am indebted to all the faculty members, Prof. R. M. Banik, Prof Mira Debnath (Das), Prof. Vikash Dubey, Dr. Abha Mishra, Dr. Sanjay, Dr. Ashish Kumar Singh and Dr. Vishal Mishra of School of Biochemical Engineering for their cooperative and supportive behavior.

I also thanks to Prof. Om Parkash, Department of Ceramic Engineering, I.I.T. (B.H.U.) for his timely support and guidance whenever I require to have. Apart from many non lasting lessons that I learnt to him, his unquenchable curiosity and love for the work are probably the most valuable lessons I have learned from him. His continual support and encouragement have kept me going. When in moving, I gets difficulty his inspirational word..... acts as booster doses. Sir, I will always be grateful for your company, support care and for the trust you shown in me. I am thankful to Prof. Devendra Kumar, Prof. Ram Pyare, Dr. Kalyani Mohanta, Dr. Akanksha Dwivedi, Dr. R. K. Chaturvedi,

I must acknowledge the fellow and former colleagues of my lab for creating an environment that was friendly and inspiring.

I also extend my thanks to the supporting staff Mr. Arun, Mr. Rajendra Prasad, Mr. Ram Ji Yadav, Mr. L. N. Singh, Mr. Ramashankar Singh, Mr. Dinesh, Mr. Binod Kumar, Mr. Mansa Ram, Mr. R. P. Singh, Mr. Rakesh Srivastava, Mr. Ashish Tripathi and Mr. Subhash for their cooperation and support.

I offer my deepest thanks to my friends Dipankar, Rahul, Prashant, Birendra Bhattacharya, Vijay Mishra, Shipra, Sumedha, Ipshita, Sukhendra, Anand, Moti lal and Shailendra who were always there for meat the click of a button and made my life easy in these days. All of them are close to my heart and their friendship and some great times makes them inspirable part of my life.

Finally, my family.....

I have been blessed with wonderful parents (Prof. P. N. Singh & Kalawati Singh), brother (Prabhat), sister (Pushpa), sweet wife (Ritu) and cute daughter (Prisha), it's an amazing family, unique in many ways, and the stereotype of a perfect family in many other. Their support have been unconditionally all these years, they have given up many things for me, they have cherished with me every great moment and supported me whenever I needed it.

Lastly, I thank Google and G. Mail without which thesis writing would have been boring and cumbersome.
