

Acknowledgement

First and foremost, I thank from the inner heart of my soul to ALLAH almighty, the merciful and gracious who always bestowed upon me his kind blessing and showed me the path of right virtues.

This is a wonderful opportunity for me to acknowledge the people without whom it would not have been possible to complete my doctoral degree. Truly, words are not enough to express my gratitude to all of them. Here, I would like to record my sincere gratitude and appreciation to all those who provided help, support, and encouragement, enabling me to complete my Ph.D thesis. First of all, it is my research guide, Dr. N. S. Rajput, Assistant Professor in Electronics Engineering, IIT (BHU). It gives me immense pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude and heartfelt thanks to him for his unfailing support, practical guidance, and fatherly attitude right from the beginning until this work came to life.

I feel immense pleasure to acknowledge the support of Prof. V. N. Mishra for accepting me as his Ph. D. scholar and for becoming the opening for my research towards my doctoral in this institute and for welcoming me under his supervision typically when I was unable to get admitted in this department. I am grateful for his advice and encouragement which has helped me grow professionally as well as personally. I wish to extend my sincere gratitude towards my research evaluation committee (RPEC) member, Prof. V. N. Mishra and Prof. R. K. Misra, Department of Electrical Engineering, IIT (BHU), Varanasi for their valuable advice during entire period of the study. I am very much thankful to all professors and DRC members for their kind support during entire period of the study. I would also express my deep and sincere gratitude to Prof. S. Jit, HoD, Electronics Engineering, IIT (BHU) for his considerate leadership. The working staffs of the department offices and in all the offices of the IIT (BHU) were very cooperative and friendly, so thank you all.

I would like to thank my supervisor Dr. N. S. Rajput who is also the Principal Investigator of Networked Communication & Computation Laboratory (NCC LAB) for supporting and kindly help. Infrastructure and facilities of NCC LAB gave me enough power to do this work in a nice manner and a quite zone to work comfortably and efficiently.

I am very much indebted to my country, Yemen, and this study has come to translate my love for my homeland. I feel obliged to IBB University, Yemen, for supporting my study and for giving me the chance to start serving my country and my people. A number of officials were also there to enable me realize my academic dream, and they deserve special thanks: the list includes Rectors of IBB University, the Vice-Rectors, professors and the Members of the Scientific and Academic Boards, and the Deans of the Faculty of Engineering, the Heads of Departments in the Faculty, my colleagues, the working staff in IBB University.

A few people extended direct assistance to me during my work, Dr. Ali Hamood Alsamhi, Dr. Mohammed Hamood Alsamhi, Abdulmalk Hamood Alsamhi, Abdulraquib Alawadi, Dr. Arf Al Rawi never hesitated to give consultation and offered a helping hand whenever I needed. I thank them a lot. I am indeed grateful to the staff of the Cultural Attaché in the Embassy of Yemen, New Delhi, for their cooperation and dedication.

The people, who instilled inspirations in my life are those who brought me up, nurtured and imparted me the real virtues of humanities, empathy and kindness. They are my real motivators who sacrifice in order to bring me to the present position and blessed me with their grace and affection. I record my deep and utmost gratitude to my father Mr. Hamood Ahmed Alsamhi and My mother Mrs. Amna Abdulkarim Alsamhi, for their devotion, sacrifices, encouragement, support, and prayers for my whole life. I can say, this small space is not enough to acknowledge their contributions up to this stage of my life.

I have reached where I am only because of the efforts of my teachers since primary school up to the moment. I am indebted to them, especially those who taught me during my Bachelor Degree in IBB University, my M.Tech and Ph. D in IIT (BHU)

I am extremely thankful to my friends and colleagues in Yemen and India: their continuous presence (physical or mental) and amicable attitudes comforted me many a time during the arduous journey of the research.

Last but not least, I can never express how thankful I am to my family, who unreservedly provided me with total support and extreme patience no matter what. I wish that my late grandfather (May Allah rest his soul in Heavens!) were still alive so he could reap what he sowed. He inculcated into my soul the love of learning and during his life he never stopped at anything to support me. My father and mother – no matter what I say or what I do, I will never be able to pay them back for their unconditional love and kindness. I am also grateful to all my brothers and sisters, who beside their role as siblings remained also my best friends. I would like also to render a deep sense of gratitude to my uncles and their family members, my aunts, maternal uncle and his family members, my cousins, and my nephews and nieces.

Finally, my thanks go to everyone who helped me directly or indirectly in my research and whose names have not been included because the list is endless.
