

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At this moment of accomplishment first of all I pay my homage and heartfelt gratitude to my mentors Prof. NiraMisra and Prof. Biswajit Ray for their throughout guidance, continuous support and encouragement since the start of this endeavor. It would have been nearly impossible and a cumbersome job to accomplish the work without them who blessed me with their exquisite attributes and unparallel creative as well as scientific traits and guided affectionately and compassionately all through the doctoral period for which I shall have no words to express. Whatever, I have achieved in my starting carrier is the sole brainchild of my supervisors who instilled in me confidence of executing the plan of work efficiently and focusing on the desired objective and infused in me blood of research. Their scientific temper and zeal has enthused me to carry out any sort of work efficiently and productively.

On the personal front, my madam has all the human traits, humbleness, leadership qualities, cooperativeness, absolving nature and beneficial attitude has vested me with the power of standing tall and boasted. I feel proud to say about my sir, his human nature, magnanimity, generosity and qualities which are matched to the second none. He is a human being par excellence and shall remain a cherished ideal not only for me but others who will strive to follow his generous and cordial personality.

I feel proud in expressing my profound gratitude to the coordinator Prof. A. K. Ray for providing the necessary amenities and giving me the opportunity to work such a competitive environment. I extend my sincere gratitude Prof. Ranjana Patnaik, Dr. N. Sharma, Dr. S. K. Rai, Dr. S. Sharma, Dr. S. B. Dasgupta and Dr. S. K. Mahto for their excellent support and constant encouragement during this dissertation work.

I am extremely grateful to Prof. S. K. Sengupta (Ex Head and Dean), Prof. V. B. Singh, Head, Department of Chemistry, BHU, for providing me the departmental facilities during my research period.

I express my heartfelt thanks to office staff of School specially Mr. Parmathma, Mr. Sharma, Mr. Barth, Mr. Mishra, Mr. Rajesh, Mr. Ajay, Mr. Sharan, Mr. Kishori and Mr. Srivastava.

I am also thankful to the technical and office staff of the Department of Chemistry for taking care of all the official things. I also like to thank all library staffs for providing easy access to library books and journals.

I owe my personal thanks to Dr. P. P. Manna, Dept. of Zoology, Faculty of science, BHU for performing in Biological studies. I am indebted to Prof. P. Maiti, School Material Science and Engineering, IIT (BHU) for performing TGA and DSC studies and prof. M. V. Jagannadham, Dept. Molecular Biology, IMS, BHU for performing Antibacterial studies. I am highly obliged to Prof. T. K. Mandal, (IACS), Kolkata performing DLS and Dr. D. Chatterjee, (CU), Kolkata, for performing DLS and TEM. I express special thanks to Dr. M. Yashpal (IMS, BHU) for providing TEM facility and Dr. Ida Tiwari, Dept. Chemistry, BHU for performing Fluorescence spectroscopy, and Dr. S. Saha, for providing me temperature dependent UV-vis spectroscopy.

I heartily acknowledge the invaluable cooperation and timely suggestions of my seniors and colleagues Dr. A. K. Mishra, Dr. N. K. Vishwakarma, Dr. V. K. Patel, Dr. C. S. Biswas, Dr. R. Kumar, Dr. S. Hira, Dr. J. Yadav, Dr. S. Rao, Dr. G. Kapusetti, Dr. S. Jaiswal, Mr. S. Kumar, Mr. R. Reddy, Mr. A. Venkanna, Mr. D. K. Kumar, Dr. P. Rao, Mr. R. Kosaru, Mrs. Monika, Mr. K. Mitra, Mrs. S.
