This is great opportunity to owe immense gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Dr. Pabitra Ranjan Maiti, for his consistent encouragement, co-operation and suggestions. His helping nature and proper direction has provided me a good academic environment in which I could excel. I would like to thank my respected head of Department Prof. Devendra Mohan, Dr. S. Mandal, Dr. P. Balaramudu and Prof. L. P. Singh (Mathematics Department) and all the teachers of my Department for their help and encouragement to complete my research work.

I am thankful to Mr. Kailash Narayan for his continuous support in my thesis work. I am thankful to my dear colleagues Vikash Khatri and all Ph.D students for their support.

I am grateful to the technical and non-technical staff of civil Engineering Department for their cooperation and help.

I offer my most heartfelt thanks to my parents, my inlaws, siblings, husband and my sons (Daksh and Shaurya) for their love and unending support throughout the life.

Finally, I thank to Almighty God who has provided me courage at every stage of my life.
