

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

गुरुशक्तिर्जयत्येकामद्रूपप्रविकासिका ।
स्वरूपगोपनव्यग्रा शिवशक्तिर्जिता यया ॥

I thank Lord of Lords, Kashi Vishwanatha (Mahadev), the divine supreme authority, the invincible power, who resides in this holiest, spiritual and oldest city of world called Benares which is widely known as city of lights, city of knowledge and city of salvation; for blessing me to get an opportunity to pursue a doctoral research program at Indian Institute of Technology (Banaras Hindu University), Varanasi, temple of Knowledge, which also called as Mahamana ki Nagri.

As I was immature and direction less in the initial phase of this PhD programme, I got the right path and took the pace with getting the guidance from my supervisor Dr. Cherian Samuel. I am very grateful to get a chance to do my research work under his supervision, who always tried to motivate and encourage me whenever I faced obstacles in the course of duration. I am very thankful to him for guiding, advising and mentoring me in this dissertation work. I am very thankful to god for giving me a very kind and generous person as a mentor in my PhD research work. Apart from guiding me in my research work, he made me a good human being. I am unable to give him anything in return for what he gave me, a special thanks for him which is nothing in return for what he gave me.

I would sincerely thank my departmental expert Dr. Prabhas Bhardwaj who was instrumental in helping me to move in right direction and helped me in dissertation work with guided me from the early stages of its creation. I would take this opportunity to thank my external expert Prof. Subir Das from the Mathematical Sciences Department who also taught me a course soft computing and being a motivator with the useful suggestions, comments and sparing his time which helped me in the completion of this PhD thesis. His special comments for mathematical terms made this doctoral work more meaningful. I feel thankful for getting his support, guidance, and encouragement in the course of duration.

A special thanks go to Prof. S. K. Sharma from Mechanical Engineering Department whose unstinted encouragement and nice small talks filled me with energy whenever I felt distraught. This encouragement and care got from him feel protected in whole PhD programme. I am also thankful for Prof. A. K. Agrawal from Mechanical Engineering Department whose generous support and guidance through motivated talks helped me to get focused on my work and being motivated towards my goal.

This is the right moment when I can express my sincere gratitude to the Prof. A. K. Jha, HOD, Mechanical Engineering Department, who is a very soft person and a very good human being. I am very lucky to get taught human values course by him. I would also thank the Convener DPGC, Prof. Rajesh Kumar, and all respected DPGC members for arranging seminars and providing valuable suggestions to enhance the quality of the research in this dissertation.

Now I would like to thank all those faculty members of the institution whose direct or indirect support helped me to get completed my doctoral programme. I am thankful to Emeritus Prof. S.N. Gupta, Prof. V.P. Singh, Prof. T. Som, Prof. Rekha Shrivastava, Prof. Rajnesh Tyagi, Prof. A.P. Harsha, Prof. K.S. Tripathi, Prof. Sandeep Kumar, Prof. Devendra Mohan, Dr. R.K. Gautam and Dr. Arnab Sarkar for their small but very important contribution in the course of duration.

Also, I would like to extend my acknowledgement to the office staff Akash Mishra and laboratory assistants Rajendra Kumar and Anil Kumar of the department who always supported me for getting any support from their side. Further, I want to thank my colleagues and my friends I made herein, especially Bharat Singh Patel, Anand Jaiswal, Vinaytosh Mishra, Abhishek Singh, Anubha Rautela, Subhashish Dey and Amit Ambar Gupta who eased and made the surroundings wieldy when the going seemed tough.

Now this is my special acknowledgement to my family members to whom I am very attached and unable to return them anything as what I got from them. First of all, I am fortunate to get good parents who made me a good human being by pouring cultural values inside me. I inherited a lot from my father Late Rabindra Prasad Singh, a great person and good human being, who seeded inside me the moral values that I possess. An arduous work to grow me and support in life did by my mother Subhadra Devi taught me to struggle in life and keep patience to get the positive result. I am also thankful to god for giving me Late Bhola Prasad Singh as a grandfather who was a freedom fighter and reputed lawyer, who guided me to work for others and do something for our country. Even though my father and grandfather are not with me today, but their values and blessings always reside with me. Also, I would like to thank my elder brother Rajnish Singh, sister Sangeeta Choudhary, brother-in-law Mukesh Choudhary and niece Anushka Choudhary for giving me all kind of support, love and freedom to complete this PhD programme.
