

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is a matter of immense pleasure for me to express my deep regards to my supervisor, Professor Sanjay Kumar Pandey, Department of Mathematical Sciences, Indian Institute of Technology (Banaras Hindu University), Varanasi for introducing me to the fascinating world of atmospheric vortices. His enthusiastic approach in uncovering hidden laws of nature has been consistently a great source of inspiration for me. His guidance and supervision has been a lifelong achievement. He let me know the importance of understanding the physical meaning of the mathematical equations.

I gratefully acknowledge Ministry of Human Resource and Development, India for the financial support to pursue my Ph.D. work. I would also like to acknowledge and thank Indian Institute of Technology (Banaras Hindu University), Department of Mathematical Sciences, SIAM (Society for Industrial and Applied Mathematics) and CSIR (Council of Scientific and Industrial Research) for providing travel grants which enabled me to present my research work at various conference worldwide.

I am indebted to all the previous Heads, past and present, of the Department for providing me necessary facilities during my research period. I am also grateful to the previous DPGC convener, Prof. (Ms.) Rekha Srivastava and the present DPGC convener Prof. S. K. Upadhyay and their entire teams for their support and encouragement when I needed desperately.

I also acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to the RPC members Professor L. P. Singh and Professor P. Ghosh (Department of Mechanical Engineering) for their valuable guidance.

I owe a lot of regards to all my teachers of the Department of Mathematical Sciences, Indian Institute of Technology (Banaras Hindu University) Varanasi, India, for their valuable suggestions and help directly or indirectly. Further, it would be unfair on my part if I fail to acknowledge the efforts and love of my teachers Dr. Akhilesh Tripathi, Mr. Mukesh Awasthi and Dr. R. R. Yadav of Lucknow University during my graduation and post graduations.

I would like to say a heartfelt "thank you" to all my friends especially Drs. S. K. Tiwari, P Kumar, Naveen Jha, Chandra Shekhar Singh, Manish Singh, Ghanshyam Prasad, R. K. Gupta, V. K. Yadav, S. Raturi and S. K. Maurya and also Amirlal, Vijay, Subhash, Sanjeev, Jiyauaal, Udit for their help during my Ph.D.

I express my sincere and heartiest gratitude to my respected mother Smt. Ram Dulari, father Shri Daya Shanker Maurya, and Bapu Shri Harinam Maurya and Dr. Sangeeta for their extreme patience, support and encouragement. Thanks are also due to my entire family including my sisters Neelam, Bandana and Gudiya and brothers.
